Wellington accommodation and travel information

The QC Hotel in Cuba Street, the Copthorne Hotel in Oriental Bay, the Distinction Century City Hotel in Tory Street, or the U Residence Hotel in Wakefield Street, are all within walking distance of both venues and offer a variety of prices for all budgets. It seems to be cheaper booking online via www.trivago.co.nz or www.booking.com than directly through the hotel, with online booking being 10 - 20% cheaper.

For alternative accommodation go to:

- www.booking.com/wellington
- www.tourism.net.nz/region/wellington/accommodation
- www.trivago.co.nz/wellington

Pricing ranges from $75 - $290 depending on quality and location.

These sites have the best selection of rooms for all budgets and they seem to be cheaper than booking directly through the hotel. Be aware of how close you will be staying to Flashdog Studios at 10 Oxford Terrace Mt Cook, as we are starting the HI seminar at 3.00pm on Friday, and then all Chelas at 6.30 pm Friday evening. Again at 9.30am Saturday at Flashdog Studios and 10.00am Sunday at the Matiu Room, Wharewaka Function Centre, 2 Taranaki St Wharf, next to the lagoon. If you are wanting to walk to the venues check your distances on Google maps so you have an idea of how long it will take.

Dining: We will provide a catered lunch on Saturday plus morning and afternoon tea. On Sunday after the seminar we will host a shared meal at Flashdog studios for all who wish to join us. For morning and afternoon tea can you please bring a contribution.

Shopping: The capital hosts most of the international branded shops as well as a great range of boutique clothing and accessory shops.

Art & museums: Wellington houses Te Papa our National Museum, The National Archives, The City Gallery, The Museum of Wellington City and Sea, as well as many other dealer galleries.

Walking & exploring: Flashdog studios is about 20/30 minutes walk from CQ Hotel, as are the others listed above, so it's easy to walk to the venue. So if you are going to stay somewhere else check the walking distance by using your Google maps app. Walking is also a great thing to do after a day of spiritual food, it's also winter so bring a warm coat.
